IN IT, TO WIN IT!

KENO

We now have a second chance drawing for Keno players.

Players can enter their non-winning Keno tickets purchased Dec. 31 or later by logging into Rhody Replay on www.rilot.com for a chance to win tickets to a URI Men's Basketball game. Three winners will be drawn and during the halftime portion of the game one of the three winners will be randomly selected to participate in a shootout competition. 1112 The player will receive a prize for competing and for every successful shot made, and if all shots are made in the time allowed, the prize is $50,000!

IT'S SHOW TIME!

Remind players to enter their non-winning PowerBall® Power-Play® tickets by logging into Rhody Replay on www.rilot.com for a chance to win Providence Performing Arts Center show tickets! 4828

Next upcoming drawings:

February 2, 2016	Pippin
February 23, 2016	Sound of Music
March 22, 2016	Ragtime

$ THERE'S A WHOLE LOT OF WINNING GOING ON! $

Gary Johnson of Warwick will use his $16,400 Keno Plus win towards renovations on the new home he recently purchased. 9379 He wagered $10 on a five spot Quick Pick game and matched all five numbers to win $4,100, which was multiplied by 4, the Keno Plus number for that draw, to win the $16,400. The winning ticket was purchased at Warwick Shell, 2211 West Shore Rd., Warwick.

A $35,000 Christmas Miracle

A Cranston woman claimed a $35,000 "Holiday Dough" Instant Ticket prize. She believes her win was a "Christmas miracle". She was recently in an accident which caused her to accumulate a hefty amount of medical bills. 6168 As a result, she will be using the money won to pay for her medical expenses. She said the win certainly lifted her spirits just in time for the holidays. The winning ticket was purchased at Milk N More, 1232 Park Ave., Cranston.
